Kellar breezes in first, at-large vote dumps 2

Winter, Sullivan capture Hancock

This was Winter country Tuesday as Hancock went heavily for State Treasurer William Winter in his bid for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination for governor.

Winter polled 3,029 votes on the basis of unofficial returns, as he carried a majority of the county's 21 precincts.

Running a surprising second was Hattiesburg resident James Swan with 1,680 while Congressman John Bell Williams was third locally at 1,475.

And somewhat of a shocker to the old-timers was former Gov. Ross Barnett's tally at 850. State-wide the run-off is shaping up between Winter and Williams.

Hancock was also Charles Sullivan country as the Clarkdale attorney garnered nearly half the vote cast for lieutenant governor. He got 3,527 ballots to 1,898 for Gov. Paul B. Johnson who's trying to step down into the state second slot. En route to his win as governor four years ago, Johnson carried Hancock with 2,245 votes while Sullivan was second in the same race at 1,725.

The state-wide run-off for governor then was between Johnson and J. P. Coleman, now a federal circuit judge.

Roy Black was third in the lieutenant governor's race with 749 and Troy Watkins of Natchez fourth at 562, somewhat poorer than the 692 he got in the '63 primary.

Hancock gave resounding votes of confidence to Joe T. Patterson for re-election as attorney-general and to Walter Bell Davis for state insurance commissioner.

Patterson had 5,376 votes to 1,643 for Louis Fondren while Davis got 4,009 to 2,720 for Truett H. Smith.

Garvin Johnston, president of Pearl River Junior College, got big support in his bid for state superintendent of education. He polled 4,682 to 2,188 for Boyd Golding.

Southern District Highway Commissioner John D. Smith from Mendenhall carried Hancock in his bid for another term with 2,512 but locally he was in trouble with 2,509 votes for W. H. (Shag) Pyron of Hazlehurst.

In that four-way race J. C. Ainsworth picked up 1,526 votes and Ed Hart trailed at 419.

The incumbent public service commissioner for the Southern district, W. E. (Bucky) Moore, appeared headed for a handy win with 3,698 votes.

I. S. Sanford got 1,412 while W. G. (Bud) Gray polled 1,173 and Homer L. Cornett, Jr., 636.

Commissioner of Agriculture Si Corley with 3,451 appeared locked in battle with his challenger, Jim Buck Ross who tallied 3,358.

For state land commissioner to succeed Robert C. Graham who did not seek re-election, Tom Roper had the lead in Hancock with 1,941 votes. Andrew Sullivan was second at 1,302.

Others in order of finish here were Charles P. Mosby, Jr., 673; Roy W. Miller, 618; David Perkins, 598; Watt Carter, 570; C. M. Dorrough, 461; Lynn Knight, 348; and Charlie Nettles, 284.

Other returns on the governor's race showed 301 for William Waller, 37 for C. L. McKinley and 21 for Vernon Brown.

The S's take lead for Senate, House

If your name begins with an "S" and you're running for the state legislature in a district including Hancock County, chances are mighty good you're leading the ticket and are in a run-off for the senate or house of representatives later this month.

Leading the pack in the four-man race for the re-apportioned State Senate District No. 34, Hancock, Pearl River and Stone--is Martin Smith, Poplarville attorney. Unofficial returns pair him against James Rester of Leetown, incumbent.

For the House of Representatives, Post No. 1, from Hancock and Pearl River, it's between Lonnie Smith, one of three Smiths running for that one, and Sidney Mac Seal.

For Post No. 2, Herbert L. Steffel of Bay St. Louis faces Walter J. Phillips, attorney who is seeking his fourth term in the legislature.

Steffel, beverage manufacturer's representative, carried both Hancock and Pearl River counties in his effort to unseat Phillips. In Hancock Steffel polled an unofficial 3,249 votes and picked up 3,073 to top the take in Pearl River. The total unofficial vote was 5,322.

Phillips got 3,333 in Hancock and 1,691 in Pearl River for 4,024.

Clarence Ladner, who served one term as representative from Hancock, got 3,037 total--1,302 from Hancock and 1,735 from Pearl River. C. R. Holladay, Piquette city judge, got 2,838 in Pearl River plus 185 here for a 2,821 total.

Wade Smith, Pearl River County Representative for the last four years, finished fourth among five for Post No. 1. He got 1,093 votes from Hancock and 2,084 from Pearl River for 3,177 in all.

Lonnie Smith, who practiced law with Magnolia Title Co. during the NASA land buying days here, led in both counties. He got 2,127 out of Hancock and 3,150 from Pearl River for 5,277.

His run-off opponent, Sidney Seal who used to teach at Lakeshore School, got 3,477--2,271 from Pearl River and 1,206 from Hancock.

Dolph Kellar won re-nomination on the first ballot for the Boat 2 seat on the board of supervisors while two incumbents faced run-offs and two others were defeated in Tuesday's Democratic primary--first conducted county-wide under a federal court redistricting order.

Dumped were R. G. (Manny) Hubbard, Jr., of Waveland, seeking his fifth term on the board from populous Boat 5; and Charles Lavinghouse who was going for his third term from Boat 3.

Thrown into the second primary were H. G. Dean of Beck 1, running for a second full term, and Jack Lot of Boat 4 who was rounding out an unexpired term. Lot had served previously.

Kellar amassed 3,602 votes according to the unofficial tally to lead the balloting for Boat 2 supervisor. Running second, but not strong enough to force a run-off, was Clarence Leo at 2,226. Claude Graham trailed at 1,164.

The run-off for Boat 5 supervisor shapes up between Russell J. Elliott, who led voting in this district, and Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., outgoing sheriff. They were 2,515 and 1,320 respectively. Hubbard ran third at 1,082 in the eight-man contest.

In Boat 3, Johnson Shaw, a former supervisor, will run off against Joseph Cuevas who got 1,868. Shaw polled 2,351 votes. Lavinghouse, the incumbent, was third at 1,384.

The second primary in Boat 1 will be between Dean and Charles A. Russ, III, president of the Hancock County United Fund whose father served a number of terms on the board.

The unofficial check put Russ in the lead in Boat 1 with 2,662 against 2,575 for Dean.

Arle Strain was next among the three others in the race with 704 votes. Irma Delacorte picked up 444 and Ernest (Bully) Ladner got 688.

While Lot's total vote was second only to Kellar's winning figure, he goes into the Boat 4 run-off against J. C. (Pock) Maufrey. They were 3,044 and 1,697. Third man was Jervis (Red) Moran, a former constable, at 907.

The board of supervisors was required to run a large this year, candidates coming from the beats in which they reside, when it failed to come up with a satisfactory redistricting plan.

Constable, JP races produce assortment

Some old faces and some new ones were around when the preliminary counting finished about dawn Wednesday on justices of the peace and constables races in the five supervisory districts of Hancock County.

Here's how it shapes up, subject to corrections when the Democratic executive committee makes the official canvass today.

For Beat 5's JP No. 1 post, incumbent Nellus Rhodes was in on the first vote over three opponents. He polled 2,753 votes to 1,055 for Asa J. Fayard, Jr., and 572 for William A. Johnson.

For the No. 2 post, incumbent Nolan S. Ladner, with 1,990 votes, was in a run-off with Forest J. Neeles who got 1,243 votes. Newcomer Rennie W. McCullough was third at 740 while Ben George, making another try for the job, finished at 483.

Over in Beat 1 at Pearlington, incumbent Lester Roper with 280 votes, was run-off with Dan J. Egan who bound against Dan J. Egan who got 151 votes. Others in the race were Ora Holden with 103 votes and Dan E. Strahan with 99.

Justices of the peace in the other three beats were chosen in the first primary Tuesday. In Beat 4, A. Frank Solph, incumbent for many years, withstood a strong challenge by James Oran Leo to win 586 to 511.

Burns J. Ladner in Boat 3, the incumbent lost to Larry C. Ladner, 261 to 493.

In Boat 8 where the incumbent wasn't in the race, Bobby McGowan beat Octavio (Ott) Leo, 124 to 195.

Nash Alliss, seeking re-election for a second full term as Beat 1 constable, appeared elected with more than 50 per cent of the vote in the race. He polled 343 to 150 for Russell Dawsey to 58 for Sherman Neeles and 51 for Andrew F. Lick, Jr.

Beat 2 constable Hayward Mitchell lost to Horatio Priorson, Jr. The count was 146 for Priorson and 82 for Mitchell.

Lesli Dedman, cooling another term as Beat 3 constable, was headed into a run-off with V. J. Peterson. They got 85 and 53 votes respectively against 47 for L. B. Ladner.

Kiro C. Mitchell, Jr., the incumbent in Beat 4, finished third and was out of the run-off race, it appears. Top in the seven-man field was Leo Garrison and 288 with Joseph Dobson next at 266. Mitchell got 232. Others were Jerry Neeles 140; Leroy Leo, 92; John Favro, 58; and Manny Lot 47.

Holleman adds Hancock in win

Reyes Holleman was re-nomination as district attorney from Hancock, Harrison and Stone counties over Thomas B. Sumrell, young Gulfport lawyer making his political debut, unofficial tally of Tuesday's primary indicated.

Sumrell carried about one-third of the 41 beats used to count the Hancock vote on the tally sheet, 3,698 votes to 2,765 for Holleman.

The incumbent DA made a strong showing in popular Harrison County to carry him into victory.

Fire rates to drop

The Mississippi Insurance Fire Rating Bureau has announced a reduction of between 30 and 40 per cent in rates will be forthcoming to Bay St. Louis homeowners as a result of the city's purchase of a new fire truck, according to J. Cyril Glover, city commissioner.

Glover said yesterday that the new unit has an increased pumping capacity and carries a greater water load in its booster tank.

The fire engine pumps at 1000 gallons per minute compared to 700 gallons per minute of the old unit, and carries 600 gallons in its booster tank versus 350 gallons in the old engine.

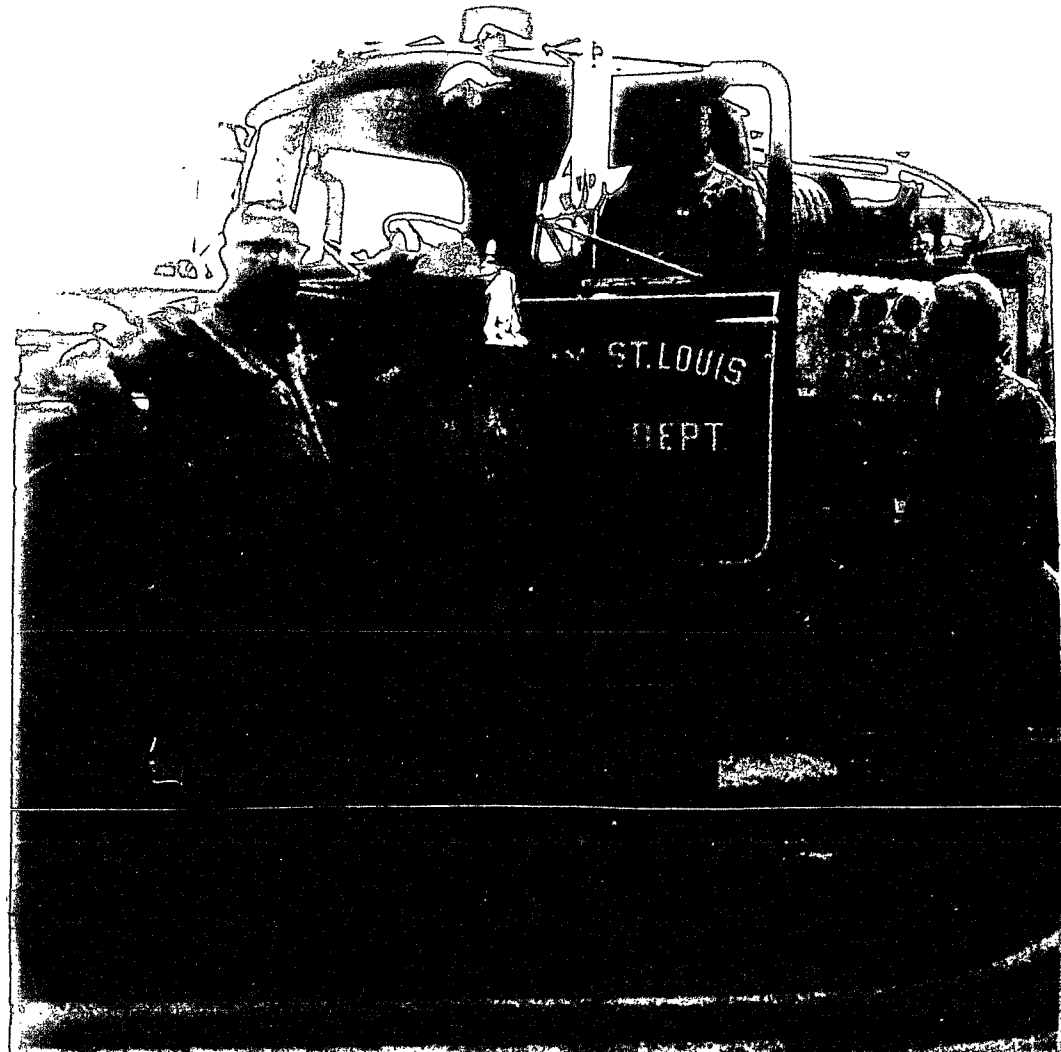

The insurance people are in the process of re-printing the rates and this will take a little time. Homeowners receiving policies or taking out new coverage will be charged at existing figures with reimbursement taking place when the new rates are issued.

The old fire truck, now in its 15th year, is being sent to the distributor in Eunice, La., for extensive overhaul. When this is complete, in about two or three months, the unit will be stationed on the south side of town in a new fire hall to be constructed.

This will place it closer to the newly annexed area and on the other side of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad tracks. The move will provide coverage to the area and prevent delay if a lengthy freight train has crossings blocked.

With the Sept. 30 connection deadline about seven and a half weeks away less than half of the estimated 2,500 new permits for the work have been issued but only 819 inspected and approved.

To complete the job on time would mean that an average of a fraction more than 30 cover connections will have to be made per working day, including Saturdays.

FRANK SENDS JEANETTE TO BUY A CAR. Wylie Heath found the Necuses a family car that wouldn't burn much gas.

We had a big V8 engine that burned too much gas and our payment was more than we could afford. Frank, my husband, told me to go to Gerry Lane Chev., our Chevrolet dealer here in Bay St. Louis, and see Wylie Heath. Wylie sold us a car about five months ago, and gave us such a good deal that Frank said there was no need to shop any place else. So my daughter and I went to see Wylie Heath, that's him in the middle, and sure enough, he found the perfect car for our needs. These people aren't miracle workers but they really try hard - We strongly recommend you visit the friendly staff at Gerry Lane Chev. and find the deal you are looking for.

FRANK & JEANETTE NECAISE

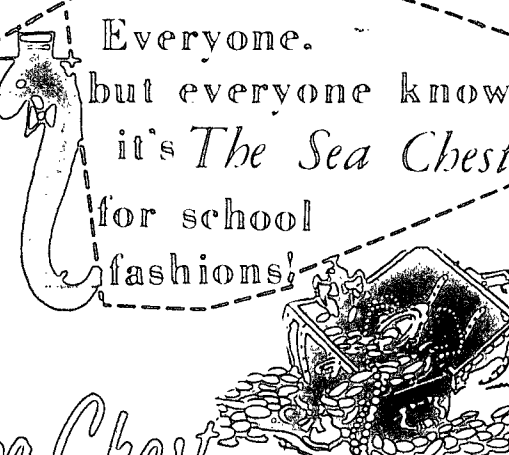

SURE OF A GOOD DEAL - Laura Campbell of Long Beach doesn't know too much about cars but she is sure she is getting a good deal on a new Camaro at Gerry Lane Chevrolet.

My name is Laura Campbell, I live in Long Beach and didn't know much about buying cars. So my friends told me to go to Gerry Lane Chevrolet where I would be sure of getting a good deal. I'm a school teacher and true I don't know much about buying cars but I do know something about mathematics and I got even a better deal than I expected. The Salesman standing beside me here is David Sloan, he really worked hard in selling me my Camaro at a price that I could afford.

Rule foul on B-W in

A tough break in the second race proved costly to Bay-Waveland's entry in the 30th annual regatta for the Commodore Bernard L. Knost All-Ladies Championship Trophy at Pass Christian last weekend.

Defending champions, skipperette Sarah Dale McFarland and her crew of Rosemary McFarland and Judy Reeves, represented Bay-Waveland.

presenting Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, finished fourth in the first race and won the third easily but lost the regatta in the second when they made contact with another boat and the judges ruled a foul.

Near the finish of the final race with Bay-Waveland enjoying a comfortable lead, spectators were amazed to see Bilotti's entry come to an almost dead stop and when the crew could offer no explanation.

Picayune triumphs

Picayune teams ran one-two Sunday in a women's softball tournament sponsored by Tex's Nursery at Elwood Memorial Park, Waveland, but two of the four Waveland League teams did not compete.

In the finals Handy Pantry defeated Cook Brothers 6-5, both from Picayune, and were awarded the trophies. Best game of the day was the semi-final won by Handy Pantry over Nicholson 8-7 in 11 innings.

In other games, Broadway Restaurant defeated Annie Ruth's, Cook Brothers of Moran's Amusements by forfeit, Kibbles of Picayune at Tex's Nursery by default.

Joyce Gerald of Kibbles hit the day's only homer. Seventeen cakes were donated by political candidates who spoke between games.

Moran's Amusement will sponsor a tournament at Kiln this Sunday.

Dough girls win state invitation

Bay-Waveland will be represented for the first time in the annual Mississippi Women's Softball Ass'n's championship tournament slated for Aug. 17-19 at Meridian.

The Dough Girls, who are battling Moran's Amusements for top slot in the Waveland Women's Softball League, won the invitation by coping the runner-up trophy Sunday in a double elimination tournament at Biloxi for the District 1 championship. Sunrall Service won the event.

Saturday the local lasses played a double-header losing their first game to Sunrall 7-3 and they moved to the loser's bracket which they won by defeating Dave's Plumbing of Biloxi 7-4 but in the finals Sunday they again lost to Sunrall, which took the winner's bracket, 6-1.

Jo Ann Colson pitched all three games and won 4 hits.

Dixie loops in elimination for city title

Action in both Dixie leagues was hot and heavy last week in between downpours. Each is involved in a double-elimination tournament for the city championship and after Sunday's play the situation is:

Dixie Boys - On Saturday the Cardinals will meet the Braves and American Legion, league champs, will play the loser of this game who will have dropped to the loser's bracket. Finals are scheduled for Sunday.

Dixie Youths - Saturday, Gulf National Bank vs. Hancock Bank, winner to play independent and that winner to play Merchants Bank for championship.

"IT'S NOT ALL HEAR SAY". Bertha and Richard Johnson found out for themselves that all you hear is true - that you can't find a better deal on a new car used anywhere.

After hearing a great deal about Gerry Lane Chev. here in Bay St. Louis from our co-worker, neighbor and friends, we decided to visit them and try to buy a clean OK used car. David Sloan greeted us and made us feel right at home. He showed us their beautiful stock of used cars and helped us decide on the right car. The friendly atmosphere, and courteous service at Gerry Lane made it impossible for us to say no. Incidentally, the price was more than reasonable. So our friends were right, it does pay to buy at Gerry Lane Chev.

Southern Realty a group of young old timers, intermingled with a few talented youngsters, again proved their superiority in the Bay Area's Cardboard Logers defeating Trapani two games to one last week ending the play-off trophy to their collection. They had already won the regular season award and have 17 wins against 3 losses in league play.

Wednesday night, in the first of the three-game series, the Realtors defeated Trapani 13-4 on 18 hits to the losers' 10.
But Trapani was not ready to quit and in the first game of a double-header Sunday they tripped the champs 7-4 with 12 hits to Southern's 9.
With games even at one win and one loss, Southern Realty manager Donald Cold-well, a veteran pitcher, was taking no chances and took the mound, serving up a combination of spins and twirls that muzzled the mighty Trapani sluggers. They won easily 21-8, the winners getting 21 hits and the losers 12.

The Realtors failed to score

Break ground for East Hancock unit

To be built at an estimated cost of $3,900, with volunteer labor, construction of the East Hancock Volunteer Fire Department's new two-story fire house has begun in Bayside Park.
When completed the building will house two fire wagons and rescue unit, offices and a living hall. To be built on Choctaw Drive between Acorn Drive and Acorn Ave., the needed lot being deeded by the Bayside Park's deposers, the structure will be in full operation in six months.

The value of the fire department to the area was regain demonstrated last week when it extinguished a grass and tree fire raging out of control over the whole block be-

As we begin the column as usual on Saturday, it's difficult to realize that the election will be almost over when it's actually read. We say "almost" because the inevitable run-offs are upcoming on Aug. 20. This is necessitated by the number of candidates for many offices splitting public sentiment in so many directions that it's virtually impossible for any one man to amass sufficient votes in the first primary. After Aug. 8 separated the men from the boys, so to speak, the fun really began.

To those now to Hancock County we'll explain that the fact that one candidate is way out front in the first polling doesn't necessarily mean that he's a sure victor. That's when run-ups hand together and toss influence in one direction or another. So nothing is decided in most cases until the last ballot is counted two weeks from next Tuesday.

So much for that, now on to news from here and there. Carol and Andy Martinich celebrated the Crescent City, the occasion being a celebration of Carol's nursing class at Hotel Dieu on its tenth anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Pitagoridis, daughter Patsy and son Tim of Houston, Tex., were recent guests of Carol and Jack Malone. Carol and Jack took their youngest, Jackie, to Hattiesburg to spend the week with his grandparents when they vacationed at St. Simon's Island, Ga.

Shower for a bride-elect

The Nicholson Avenue home of Margie and Sidney Woods was the scene of a shower Thursday for Lynn Markey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baggett, Jr., who is to wed Ronald Favre on Saturday, Aug. 12. In addition to Margie's hostesses were Sue Longworth, Myrl Lafontaine and Elver Lador. As no invitations were sent, we've been asked to remind all friends and relatives that the ceremony is to be at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at 11 a.m. Saturday, and the reception will be immediately after wards at the Legion Home.

A very special happy birthday wish goes to Mrs. Andrew Curver who cut her cake on Tuesday, Aug. 1.

Charlie Richard made his Colman Avenue debut on Saturday morning, and he's looking just great after having recent major surgery in a Crescent City hospital.

Mrs. Bourgeois celebrates

Mrs. Rosie Bourgeois is at home once again after spending four weeks in Cheyenne, Wyo., where she was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Donald Decker, husband Tech. Sgt. Decker and sons. While there Rosie celebrated her 72nd birthday at a surprise party given by the Deckers. Twenty-five guests enjoyed the huge cake and a barbecue later in the afternoon. She received many lovely gifts and cards. She was also honored at an open house on July 22 hosted by an old friend named Joe. There was another birthday cake and over 100 friends dropped in during the affair. This was the fourth consecutive year that she has spent her birthday in Wyoming. While there she attended the 100th anniversary festivities in Cheyenne, took in the Frontier Day parade, attended lots of dances and thoroughly enjoyed the entire visit.

Word has been received from a gentleman who made quite an impression locally during his brief tenure on the Coast. His name is Kimball S. Van Sant. His address at present is 196 Leslie Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah.

The Chris Bells are here

Ann and Chris Bell arrived in Waveland Friday night to surprise her parents, Gladys and Slim Jenkins, and her sons, Gil and Roland, who have been visiting the Jenkins for the past couple of weeks. The Bells will remain here a week before returning to their home in Decatur, Ala.

Just married

Noveltyville Ethelene and Albert Lohrer visited the Bay Wednesday as they were returning from their Miami, Fla. honeymoon. The joyous couple was wed in Baton Rouge on Saturday, July 29, with Rev. Foster McGuire officiating. Albert's son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Lader, were best man and matron of honor. The Lohers are now in Baton Rouge preparing to move into their new home at 6722 Perimeter Ave.

Another very special happy birthday greeting is on the way to our good friend Joe Cook. Walker, who remembered that his birthday was Aug. 1, on Aug. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher are at home again after an extensive vacation which took in cities in Texas, Los Angeles, a jaunt to the Grand Canyon, Mexico and various points en route.

Catharina and Clifton Newland are now occupying their Waveland Beach home. They had as weekend guests Dottie and Theo Monson.

Sally and Joe Richardson are proud new owners of the Flamingo Restaurant and Lounge. They plan to open soon take on intensive clean-up and menu remodeling.

Barbara (Mrs. Gerry) Rigby is here from Atlanta visiting her parents, Lorraine and Ray Rigby.

Doggie doings

Frank Brown's doggie with the "tweed" coat is out to be seen again. Although he's missing from his home in the neighborhood, he is still being seen in the area. He is a small, black and white dog, and he is very friendly.

PLEASANT WITH TREATMENT - Mr. and Mrs. Bob Saunder of Picayune were so pleased with the treatment they received at Gerry Lane Chevrolet that they persuaded Bob's father to buy a truck from Dave Sloan.

We shopped three other dealers but decided to try Gerry Lane Chev. in Bay St. Louis. We went just out of curiosity at first, we wanted to find out if the things we had heard were true. Those people at Gerry Lane Chev. are really great. David Sloan did everything one could expect in order to sell us our Camaro. My wife and I were so pleased with the treatment we received that I persuaded my father to buy a truck from David when we went back to pick up our Camaro. We highly recommend that you visit Gerry Lane Chev. if you are in the market for a car or truck.

"YOU'VE GOT TO DEPEND ON IT" - Is what the Marjorie Piechocki said about a used car. Gerry Lane Chevrolet found them a good used car that they could depend on.

My husband is a seaman and is away a great deal of the time. He wanted a good used car for me to drive while he is out at sea. We went to Gerry Lane Chev. in Bay St. Louis and told David Sloan that we had to have a real dependable used car. David went right to work and found a nice Chevrolet that had already been serviced by this outstanding service department. We drove the car and could tell that this automobile had been serviced by skilled maintenance personnel. The people at Gerry Lane Chev. said they needed our business and we were glad to buy a car from them after the way we were treated. Thanks David and all the folks at Gerry Lane Chev.

Southern Realty...

(Cont. from Page 1-B.) In the top of the first and Trapani looked good in the bottom of the same inning putting over 4 runs. But the game started to take shape in the top of the second when the first man up, Claude Yarborough, Jr., singled. Billy Sills sacrificed Yarborough to second. Billy Watts' fly ball was misjudged by the right fielder and he was safe at first. Caldwell singled; Luke singled driving in 3 runs; Allison tripled; Mathes singled; Cameron singled but was forced at second on Ginn's grounder ending the inning but Southern had a short-lived 6-4 lead. Trapani bounced back in the bottom of the third scoring 3 and going ahead 7-6 but was held runless for the rest of the game except for a lone run in the bottom of the sixth. The visitors were scoreless in the third and fourth, scored one in the fifth, then blasted out 7 in each of the final two innings.

With the score tied 7-7 in the top of the sixth, Realty's big guns found the range, Watts, Ginn and Luke piling four-baggers. Watts drove his over the leftfielder's head while Ginn and Luke each slammed one over the right-centerfield fence into Carroll Avenue.

For the champs, Wimpy Seymour was 1 for 1 with a pinch hit in the seventh; Allison 4-5, Ginn 3-4, Luke 3-6, Mathes, Cameron, Yarborough, Jr., Sills and Watts each were 3-5 with pitcher Caldwell contributing 1-4.

TRIED THEIR LUCK - Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Bobinger

of Gulfport tried their luck at Gerry Lane Chevrolet and found the right car for their needs.

We live in Gulfport but heard a lot about Gerry Lane Chev in Bay St. Louis, so we decided to go try our luck at buying a clean O.K. used car from them. John Gallagher, our salesman, really showed wonderful hospitality and friendliness in helping us select the car for our needs. We had heard a lot about their service department, that's open until seven o'clock week days and noon on Saturdays, and the friendly sales personnel. The things that we had heard were affirmed--These people are making an all out effort to make Gerry Lane Chev the most progressive and friendliest dealer on the Gulf Coast.
